A student will not be permitted to write the end examination in any Subject unless he / she satisfies the above attendance requirement in that Subject. In such a case the candidate may seek re-admission for that Subject when next offered.

- 2.6 In order to qualify for the award of the Post-Graduate Degree, the candidate shall earn all the prescribed credits, as per the course structure.

3. EVALUATION:

- (i) Theory Subjects are evaluated for 100 marks, and Practicals/Lab. Subjects are also evaluated for 100 marks.
- (ii) Seminar and Comprehensive Viva-voce shall be evaluated for 50 marks each.
- (iii) For theory subjects, the distribution shall be 40 marks for Internal Evaluation and 60 marks for the End-Examination. For the award of the 40 Internal (sessional) marks for theory subjects, there shall be 2 internal examinations during the Semester, one at the middle of the Semester and the other immediately after the completion of instruction; each of which shall be evaluated for 25 marks, and the better one out of these two internals shall be considered for awarding the 25 sessional marks. Out of the remaining 15 sessional marks, 5 marks are allocated for teacher's assessment (allotment is based on the performance of the student in the class) and 10 marks will be awarded based on the student's performance in the Assignments. A candidate shall be deemed to have secured the minimum academic requirement in a subject if he / she secures a minimum of 40% of marks in the End Semester Examination and a minimum aggregate to 50% of the total marks in the End Semester examination and Internal Evaluation taken together.
- (iv) For Practicals/Lab. subjects, there shall be a continuous evaluation during the Semester for 40 sessional marks and 60 End Examination marks. Out of the 40 sessional marks, 15 marks shall be awarded for day-to-day work and 25 marks to be awarded by conducting an internal laboratory test. The End Examination shall be conducted by the teacher concerned and another faculty member of the same Department, as suggested by the Head of Department.
- (v) For the seminar, the student shall collect the information on a specialized topic and prepare a technical report, showing his understanding over the topic, and submit to the department, which shall be evaluated by a Departmental committee consisting of the Two senior faculty members nominated by Head of the Department. The seminar report shall be evaluated for 50 marks. There shall be no external examination for seminar.
- (vi) Every candidate shall be required to execute his P.G. Project and submit his Dissertation, after getting approvals from the Project Review committee (PRC). The PRC shall be constituted by the Head of the Department, and shall consist of the Head of the Department, the Project Supervisor, and a Senior faculty member of the Department. The PG Project shall start immediately after the completion of the I Year II Semester, and shall be of two semesters duration. The student has to decide his topic for his PG Project Work within the first 6 weeks after the I Year II-Semester end examinations. The student should submit his PG Project Work Proposal to the PRC (PRC – I Presentation) on whose approval he can register for the PG Project. The PRC will monitor the progress of the project work through PRC-II and PRC-III presentations – one at the end of II Year I Semester, and one before the submission of the PG Project/Dissertation. The student shall submit a detailed Project Report at the end of the II year II Semester, and the same shall be evaluated at the end of that semester by the PRC as SATISFACTORY or UNSATISFACTORY. Every Project report shall undergo anti plagiarism check as per the University / College norms for satisfactory performance. In the case of Unsatisfactory declaration, the student shall resubmit the Project report after carrying out the necessary modifications / additions in the Project work, within the specified time as suggested by the PRC. The student can submit the Dissertation, only after completion of 40 weeks from the Date of Registration, after obtaining the approval from PRC. If any student could not present for PRC-I as scheduled in the department due to some valid reasons, the Department can conduct PRC-I to such candidates at a later date. However, the candidate is allowed to submit the dissertation only after completion of 40 weeks from the date of approval of the Project in PRC-I. Extension of time, within the total permissible limit for the completion of the Degree, may be considered by the PRC, on sufficient valid/genuine grounds.

- (vii) The student shall be allowed to submit the PG Project Work and Dissertation, only on the successful completion of all the prescribed PG Subjects (Theory and Lab.), Seminars, Comprehensive Viva, PG Project Stage-I etc. Once the student's PG Project Work and Dissertation are approved by the PRC, the Dissertation will be sent to an External Examiner nominated by the Principal/Director of the College/School, on whose approval, the student can appear for the PG Project Viva-voce Examination.
- (viii) If the report of the External Examiner is favourable, then Viva-voce Examination shall be conducted by a Board, consisting of the PG Project Supervisor, Head of Dept., and the External Examiner who adjudicated the Project Work and Dissertation. The Board shall jointly report the student's performance in the PG Project Work as - (A) EXCELLENT, or (B) GOOD, or (C) SATISFACTORY, or (D) UNSATISFACTORY, as the case may be. In case, the student fails in the Viva-voce Examination, or gets the UNSATISFACTORY grade, he has to reappear for the Viva-voce Examination, as per the recommendations of the Board. If he fails at the second Viva-voce Examination also, he will not be eligible for the award of the Degree, unless he is asked to revise and resubmit by the Board within the specified time, subjected to the condition that double the period of duration of course is not violated.
- (ix) If the report of the External Examiner is not favorable, the student shall revise and resubmit the Dissertation after one semester or as per the time specified by the External Examiner and/or the PRC. If the report of the Examiner is unfavourable again, then the Dissertation may be rejected. In such a case the Project shall have to be carried out again, as per the suggestions or the recommendations of the external examiner / PRC.
- (x) There shall be a Comprehensive Viva-Voce at the end of the III Semester, for the award of 50 marks. The Comprehensive Viva-Voce shall be conducted by a committee consisting of three senior faculty members of department nominated by the Head of the Department. There are no internal marks for the Comprehensive Viva-voce.

- (xi) If a student did not deliver the Seminar inspite of satisfying the attendance requirements for Seminar, or could not be present for comprehensive Viva, or could not secure 50% of the marks allocated for Seminar / Comprehensive Viva- voce, he shall be treated as failed, and he may appear for the same (Seminar / Comprehensive Viva- voce) which may be conducted at the end of each subsequent Semester.

4. Re-Admission / Re-Registration / Re-Appearance:

(i) Re-Admission for discontinued students :

Students who have discontinued the Degree Programme due to any reasons what so ever, may be considered for readmission into the same Degree Programme with the regulations preavailing at the time of readmission, with prior permission from the concerned authorities, subject to item no. 2.3.

(ii) Re-Registration for Detained students :

When any student is detained in a subject (s) due to shortage of attendance in any semester, he may be permitted to re-register for the same or equivalent subject (as suggested by the Board of Studies of that Department) as when offered in the subsequent semester following the same regulations with which he got admitted, with prior permission from the concerned authorities, subject to item no. 2.3.

(iii) Re-Appearance for Improvement of Internal Marks for Subject(s) Failed :

A student may be given one chance for each subject to improve his internal marks provided his internal marks are less than 50% of the assigned maximum internal marks, and has failed in the end examination. In such cases he has to seek permission from the concerned authorities for re-appearance in examinations (internal + end examinations) of that subject (s) within four weeks from the date of commencement of class work in that semester in which that subject (s) is offered. In the event of such re-appearance for improvement of internal marks, the marks obtained by him in such subject (s), in both internal and end examinations, during the previous attempt are nullified.

5. Grading Procedure:

- (i) Marks will be awarded to indicate the performance of each student, in each Theory Subject or Practicals or Seminar or Comprehensive Viva-voce etc., and a proportional letter grade shall be given.
- (ii) As a measure of the student's performance, a Grading System using the following letter grades and corresponding percentage of marks shall be followed.
