

About the College:

The College was established as Nagarjuna Sagar Engineering College in 1965 by the Government of Andhra Pradesh. When the college was under the administrative control of the Department of Technical Education, it was affiliated to Osmania University, Hyderabad. With the formation of Jawaharlal Nehru Technological University on 2nd October 1972, it became a constituent college of the University and was later renamed as JNTU College of Engineering, Hyderabad. From its inception in 1965 to 1984, the College was located at Masab Tank Campus. In 1984, the College was shifted to its permanent location at Kukatpally, 20 km from the heart of the City, on Bombay National Highway (NH-9).

The College has been recognized as a well performing institution and has been granted Autonomous status by UGC, New Delhi. Activities in the College includes Faculty Development and training, teaching to UG & PG programmes and research & consultancy services besides other development activities.
