About the Workshop

The Workshop on “Advances in Concrete Technology and Good Construction Practices (ACTGCP-2016)” is a platform provided for teachers, researchers, and practicing Civil engineers. There has been a tremendous spurt in recent times in infrastructure growth in India. Present trends suggest a great demand for Civil Engineers in design and construction. There is a growing concern that some of the present Civil Engineering graduates lack sound knowledge of Concrete Technology and Good Construction Practices. The graduate and post-graduate students should have knowledge of high performance concrete and the appropriate construction practices to be adopted for strong, durable and safe structures. The Department of Civil Engineering, JNTUH College of Engineering Hyderabad, invites teachers, researchers, and practicing Civil engineers to participate in the workshop. The workshop will start with the Inaugural Lecture followed by 3-4 invited lectures.
